United States Court of Appeals
FOR THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA CIRCUIT

No. 05-5131

September Term, 2004

05cv00338

Filed On:

CSX Transportation, Inc.,
Appellant

United States of America,
Appellee

v.

Anthony A. Williams, In his official capacity as Mayor of the District of Columbia, et al.,
Appellees

BEFORE: Henderson, Randolph, and Roberts, Circuit Judges

ORDER

Upon consideration of the emergency motion for an injunction pending appeal and for summary reversal, it is ORDERED that the effectiveness of D.C. Bill 16-77, the Terrorism Prevention in Hazardous Materials Transportation Emergency Act of 2005, be stayed pending further order of the court. The purpose of this administrative stay is to give the court sufficient opportunity to consider the merits of the emergency motion and should not be construed in any way as a ruling on the merits of that motion. See D.C. Circuit Handbook of Practice and Internal Procedures 32-33 (2002). It is FURTHER ORDERED, on the court's own motion, that the District of Columbia appellees and the Sierra Club hand-deliver and hand-file their responses, not to exceed 20 pages each, to the emergency motion by the close of business (4:00 p.m.) on Friday, April 22, 2005. In the event an additional motion for interim relief is filed with the court by 4:00 p.m. on Thursday, April 21, 2005, the responses also should address the arguments made in any such motion.
